

www.vishnuias.com

MAY

24.05.2021

CURRENT AFFAIRS

A MAGAZINE FOR CIVIL SERVICES PREPARATION

JOIN OUR TELEGRAM: <https://t.me/vishnuiasmentor>

Articles of the day
THE HINDU & INDIAN EXPRESS

UPSC

General Studies

Test Series

Online & Offline classes

One-Stop
Solution

Free daily materials

THE HINDU

GS 1 : Heritage and culture ,Geography of the World and Society

1. Very severe cyclone Yaas to hit north Odisha coast

GS 2 : Polity, Governance, International Relations

2. WhatsApp and its dubious claims
3. Deflating India's COVID black market boom
4. 'Children at limited risk for severe COVID-19'
5. Anxiety, depression top concerns
6. Another challenge
7. Cumulative fatalities cross three lakh
8. U.K. to unveil plans for 'digital border'
9. Single dose only 33% effective against B.1.617.2: U.K.
10. Centre, majority of States opt to hold Class 12 board exams
11. India to push for WHO, EU approval for Covaxin

GS 3 : Economy, Science and Technology,Environment

12. Two who strayed in from Pakistan sent back: BSF
13. Minor 'face-off' in Galwan Valley
14. Cairn Energy verdict 'highly flawed': Ministry
15. Recalibrate growth, reprioritise expenditures
16. Guarantor beware
17. The many benefits of an eco tax
18. 'Small businesses need more time for GST compliances'

THE INDIAN EXPRESS

GS 2 : Polity, Governance, International Relations

1. Ensure timely evacuation: PM reviews cyclone preparations
2. Shivshankar Menon: 'Post-Covid, everyone will be diminished. We have to handle our problems competently... not do image management'
3. Serum Institute disassociates itself from its executive's remarks on Covid vaccination drive
4. Post COVID complication among children a new cause of worry for pediatricians
5. Diaspora doctors, professionals launch 'Project Madad' to combat COVID-19 spread in rural India
6. The pandemic is an opportunity to rebuild our medieval public health infrastructure
7. Afghanistan 2.0: What continued US engagement means for the region

GS 3 :Economy, Science and Technology,Environment

8. Forex reserves set to breach all-time high on sustained FDI, FPI inflows
9. Cabinet Secretary chairs NCMC meet to review preparations for cyclone Yaas
10. A view from inside India's crumbling health infrastructure